

Corporate Membership 2012 Now Open

Dear Sir/Madam

Under the professional management of Carr Golf Services, Irelands leading golf management and consultancy firm, New Forest Golf Club attracted over 70 new members in 2011 mainly due to the exceptional quality of the golf course and the excellent value for money membership offers.

Designed by former Walker Cup Captain Peter McEvoy the Westmeath venue is a parkland gem, its undulating features highlighting some of the finest putting surfaces and fairways in Ireland.

In addition the Clubhouse, a converted 18th Century Manor House, boasts luxury locker rooms facilities, an all-encompassing restaurant and a conservatory bar with panoramic views.

Situated in stunning forested surroundings in Tyrrellspass, the golf club lies less than 5 minutes from the M6 motorway. Containing a top quality driving range, short game area, practice putting greens and pro shop with all the latest equipment & apparel wear, it really is a haven for the discerning golfer.

Full membership to the golf club is only €850 and entitles the bearer to full access to the golf course and practice facilities 7 days per week, including access to the driving range and short game academy.

Corporate Membership

New for 2012, the club has introduced a corporate membership package which offers businesses in the local area the opportunity to join the club and have full access to the facilities for both themselves and their clients. The details are as follows,

Corporate Membership entitles the company to nominate,

- 2 company employees as full members,
- 100 green fee vouchers that can be used to entertain clients or as corporate gifts
- A corporate golf outing for up to 16 people including a 3 course meal,

The total value of the above package is €5895, for 2012 the golf club is offering this exceptional corporate package for an amazing €2500 (+VAT) If you are interested in the above package or would like to find out more information please call 044 9221100.

Open Weekend

The golf club is hosting an open weekend for prospective members on the 28th and 29th of January. For a reduced rate of €20 you can enjoy a relaxing round of golf followed by a meal in the luxurious club house. If you are interested in corporate or individual membership? The staff and current members would be delighted to show you around the world class facilities and join you for dinner after you have finished playing. To book your space on the time sheet please call 044 9221100.

For more information about New Forest Golf Club please visit www.newforest.ie